Prayer Guide

May 2024

Author: Alan Campbell

In our 21st century culture we oftentimes look to new ideas to revitalize our lives. At times, the church is not immune to conformity to cultural temptations. I wondered about the early Christian church and what it was like to gather and live out their faith in the face of enormous challenges and distractions. In Alan Kreider's book, The Patient Ferment of the Early Church, we have a glimpse how church members persevered in the list below;

- Meeting frequently,
- Standing in prayer, arms raised praising and thanking God,
- Making the sign of the cross,
- Eating together,
- Giving the kiss of peace,
- Memorizing texts,
- Visiting the poor the sick and prisoners,
- Exercising hospitality,
- Putting money in the collection box,
- Replenishing stocks of food and clothing,
- Feeding needy people,
- Discerning carefully,
- Being truthful,
- Maintaining sexual purity,
- Observing disciplines that limit impatient behavior,
- Being willing to lose out (in business, law, and verbal arguments),
- Allow people to leave the church,
- Facing death without fear,

How do we measure up today?

Am I encouraging other believers?

In our respective churches, am I living out my witness, making disciples?

Will I listen more carefully and follow the promptings of the Holy Spirit?

Are my actions and thoughts glorifying God?

Closing Prayer

Most Merciful God whose son Jesus Christ was tempted in every way yet was without sin, we confess before you that we have sinned. We have hungered after that which does not satisfy- we have compromised with evil- we have doubted your power to protect us. Forgive our lack of faith and have mercy on our weakness. Forgive us for what we do and what we fail to do. Heavenly Father set us free from the past that we cannot change; Open us to a future in which we can be changed; and grant us grace to grow more and more in your likeness and image; through Jesus Christ, the light of the world. Amen
