

Speaker:

Name and Role: Rev. Dr. Tesia Mallory, Dean of Chapel, United Theological Seminary, Dayton, OH

Bio: Tesia Mallory is the Dean of the Chapel at United Theological Seminary. Her professional interests include liturgical theology, creative worship, women worship leaders, worship consulting in the local church, the sacraments, and liturgical music. Tesia received her Doctor of Ministry from United focusing on Wesleyan Eucharistic Theology in May 2021 and is an elder in The Global Methodist Church.

<https://www.facebook.com/TLMWorshipResources>

WORSHIP RESOURCES

Topic: As your congregation transitions from those liturgies and United Methodist Resources into Global Methodist Theological materials, it is good to gain a fresh, Wesleyan-founded worship start. Tesia's enthusiastic, warm approach to music, liturgy, and worship materials will help you to transition. Meet Tesia, and let her help you get started with resources such as Calls to Worship, Opening Prayers/Collects, Litany Prayers, Song Suggestions (modern and traditional), Prayers for Illumination, Prayers of the People, Pastoral Prayers, Baptismal Remembrance Liturgies, Seasonal Communion liturgies, Resources for children, and Information about the liturgical year.

Contact: tsheffield@united.edu

Rev. Dr. Tesia Mallory Worship Resource Substack :

<https://tesiamallory.substack.com/>

Our Great Redeemer's Praise Hymnal https://youtu.be/IDe_rLqLrqk?si=eK-4n_HexVjez5G9

<https://seedbed.com/our-great-redeemers-praise-new-hymnal/>

"Question of the Day: What is a Celebrant/Celebration of Life?"

"Question of the Day: What is a Celebrant/Celebration of Life?"

Office Space Planning Tip: Maximize natural light by positioning workstations near windows. It not only boosts productivity but also enhances the overall ambiance of your office.

#commonsenseofficefurniture #orlando #officedesign #officespaceplanning #tiptuesday

